PRESS RELEASE

STATEMENT FOR HOME INVASION

On May 1st, 2003 at approximately 1330 hours (1:30 PM) a residential robbery occurred in the 5800 block of Sachem Drive in the Town of Forest Heights.

The homeowner/victim allowed three suspects in her home as they engaged her in conversation. Once inside, the suspects produced a weapon, and bounded the victim. Her home was ransacked.

The victim was able to free herself and notify the police after the suspects fled the scene.

At this time in the investigation, this appears to be an isolated incident. Any one with information is encouraged to call the Forest Heights Police Department at 301-839-4040, or the Prince George's County Police Robbery Section at 301-336-8800.

There is no further information available pending investigation.
